

A scenic view of a Sicilian town, likely Agrigento, featuring the Temple of Concordia in the foreground. The temple is a well-preserved ancient Greek temple with four Doric columns. In the background, a dense cluster of colorful buildings with red-tiled roofs is nestled at the foot of a large, rugged mountain. The sky is a clear, vibrant blue.

The Unexpected is Part of the Journey: At Strada Toscana we weave amazing, authentic experiences into every trip, but sometimes unexpected things come up. If a site has an unscheduled closing, we improvise to include something equally as wonderful and interesting. The quality of the trip is never at risk, as our team is committed to excellence, along with our vast, local, Italian connections.

WALKING AND LUGGAGE:

Walking is an integral part of this tour. You can expect to walk on uneven cobblestones, up steep hillsides, and on steps, steps and more steps. This is not normal street walking! You must also be prepared to handle your own luggage - including up stairs in hotels, since some do not have elevators. We advise that you do not book this tour if you have a physical or health-related condition, including dependence on a cane, walker or wheelchair, that impedes your ability to walk freely and safely - especially when handling luggage.
